Whatever may be thought of the political campaign elsewhere, every lover of good government and common honesty should hope for the defeat of the unholy political combination in Maine which brought disgrace upon that reputable State last year. We have heard prominent Democrats express the same sentiment, their disgust for the folly of the Garcelon crowd overcoming all party feeling. If the people of Maine do not rise up and rebuke the political cut-throats whose infamous record caused every son of Maine to blush we shall lose our faith in natural law.—BOSTON HERALD (IND.) AUG. 7.

WHY THE SOUTH IS SOLID FOR HANCOCK.

Consider what Lee and Jackson would do were they alive. These are the same principles for which they fought for four years. Remember the men who poured forth their blood on Virginia's soil, and do not abandon them now. Remember that upon your vote depends the success of the Democratic ticket.—WADE HAMPTON, AT THE MEETING IN THE INTEREST OF DEMOCRATIC HARMONY IN VIRGINIA, AT STAUNTON, JULY 26.

I will tell you who I think the Republicans should nominate, and who I consider their strongest man; he is a true man, a man of principle, an honest man, and would make a good President, for us all. Personally, I consider him the best man you could nominate. I refer to Gen. James A. Garfield, of Ohio.—THOMAS A. HENDRICKS, DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE FOR VICE PRESIDENT IN 1876.

Our Nominee.

The nomination at Saco yesterday fulfilled the expectations of the District. Mr. Reed has made for the the First Congressional District of Maine a national reputation, and brought it honor and wide approval. He has placed himself in the very fore-front of our legislators, and distinguished himself in a House made up of the ablest of the land.

The manner in which his nomination was brought about, by the unanimous vote of the delegates in convention, shows the hold he has upon the voters of the district and the regard they entertain for him. That regard will seek and find an emphatic expression on the thirteenth of September.

The Argus and the Steal.

The Argus, speaking of the forgery in the return from Gouldsboro, says:

It [The PRESS] claims, it is true, to believe now that Gov. Garcelon or some of the Council did the deed, but it adduces no proof to show who it was. Does it expect any one to believe that this person or that is guilty until the fact is established by plenary proof?

The PRESS claims nothing concerning the Gouldsboro return but what has been proved by plenary testimony.

It claims, first, that the name of the Republican candidate for Representative from the town of Gouldsboro was Oliver P. Bragdon. That fact is not denied by anybody.

It claims, second, that Mr. Bragdon had eighty-two majority in Gouldsboro and that if this majority had been given him he would have been elected Representative from that district. This fact too is uncontroverted.

It claims, third, that Mr. Bragdon's name was well known to the town clerk of Gouldsboro and that every time it appears on his record it appears correctly—Oliver P. Bragdon. This fact too, is uncontroverted.

It claims, fourth, that this town clerk correctly wrote Mr. Bragdon's name in the representative return from Gouldsboro. This fact is established by the testimony of the clerk, on oath, and by the testimony of Councillor Moody who swears that when he tabulated the return he found what is now a "B" to be a "P" and tabulated it accordingly, for Oliver P. Bragdon.

It claims, fifth, that sometime between the time when Councillor Moody first tabulated the return and the time when the final lists were made up that "P" was changed to a "B" and that this was done—to use Gov. Garcelon's pointed phrase—for the purpose of securing a representative of the right stamp." In support of this allegation it cites the fact that the middle initial "B" is very different from the "B" at the beginning of Bragdon, that the lower curve is in different ink from the rest of the letter. It also cites on this point the testimony of the town clerk that he wrote a "P" and never changed it to a "B," and that of Councillor Moody who tabulated it in the first place as a "P;" and further it calls attention to the testimony of William C. Holt, an expert in handwriting, before the Hale Committee. Being shown the return in its present condition and asked his opinion of it he testified as follows:

It appears first to have been written "Oliver P. Bragdon" and, with different ink, changed to "B" or partially to a "B". There seems to have been an erasure, whether it was before or after that letter was written it is impossible to tell.

Q. Where does the erasure apply?

A. On the lower part of the last loop of the "B."

Q. What now appears instead of the entire lower loop which would make it a "B"?

A. About two-thirds of the lower loop of the "B".

Q. Is it clear, from your examination, that that was made at some different time and with different ink from the rest of the letter?

A. It is made with different ink, most assuredly, and, in this case, the line is quite unsteady, tremulous.

The PRESS claims, sixth, that this forgery was committed by somebody whose interest it was to have a Republican Representative counted out and a Fusionist counted in. It is clear that that person could not have been a Republican. He must have been a member of the Fusion party.

It claims, seventh, that when the members of the Council were asked to explain this apparent forgery, some of them ran away to distant States, and the rest held their peace.

It claims, eighth, that the minority of the Hale Committee, one member of which was the Hon. Henry Ingalls of Wiscasset, a life long Democrat, were unable to contradict a single statement of fact made by the majority about this and the other returns, but on the contrary were compelled to admit their truth.

THE Indianapolis Journal states that its advices in regard to the political situation from all parts of Indiana are of the most favorable character. The Republicans everywhere are full of zeal, enthusiasm and healthy confidence. Large numbers of voters who formerly acted with the party, but who have been estranged or disaffected for a few years past, are returning and declaring their purpose to vote the straight ticket. This is especially true of Republican Greenbackers. The Journal thinks it certainly safe to say that several thousand men who voted the Greenback ticket in that State two years ago will vote the Republican ticket next October. The Hon. A. G. Porter, the Republican candidate for governor, is making a most effective and successful canvass. To the Democrats Landers is a bitter dose, and but for the danger of swapping horses while crossing the stream, he would have been put off the ticket before this; and English is universally considered to be a dead weight on the National ticket. The Journal concludes that the prospect for the redemption of the State has not been so good for many years, and if the Republicans continue to work with as much zeal and intelligence as they are now doing until election, it believes that success is certain.

ONE of the most extravagant humors of the campaign was the blunder of the National Executive Committee of the Hancock Veterans in appointing Gen. S. J. Anderson one of the leaders of that organization for Maine. They were probably misled by his ancient militia title combined with his modern warlike zeal. It is needless to say that they promptly repaired the error when the roaring laughter which followed had shown them that something ludicrous had happened. As to the present appointment of Gen. C. W. Roberts of Bangor and Col. C. B. Merrill of this city, it may fairly be said that they are becoming and creditable. Both were good soldiers, and leave a record in actual service of which any one might well be proud. It is pleasant to bear this tribute to political opponents. It is matter for regret that these gentlemen have taken a political course since the war which we deem inconsistent with the cause for which they fought so well. But the original mistake of the appointing committee strikingly emphasizes the incongruity of trying to make a war party out of the fragments of he old Copperhead crowd.

IN commenting upon General Hancock's letter of acceptance the Charleston (S. C) News (Dem.) concedes that the letter is not a practical one in the sense that the Republican and Independent press would apply that term, and argues as follows: "The Democracy do not appeal to the people to elect their candidate because they hold particular views concerning the tariff or the currency, public improvements, national banks or land grants, but because the policy declared and practised by the Republican party will insensibly change the whole structure of our government." In reply to this the Boston Herald (Ind.) says: "If this is the ground to be taken, and the questions of the hour are to be tossed aside for a political theory, then the Democratic party had better throw up the fight in advance."

REPRESENTATIVE De la Matyr of Indiana, has just returned from Alabama, and has given his impressions to a reporter. The greenback Congressman is free to declare that the election was carried by the Democrats by means of a systematic scheme of fraudulent counting and voting. The laws are designed to make this scheme practicable. De la Matyr says that leading Democrats admitted to him that on a fair vote and honest count the Democratic majority is not over 15,000 in Alabama. Mr. De la Matyr thinks that it would be next to impossible to secure a fair election in November in any State of the South.

THE frenzied state of mind in which the Argus finds itself on account of the charges against Gen. Plaisted in connection with the band of the Eleventh Maine regiment is truly pitiable. When a paper so far loses its head as to use the words "infamous libel" in italic

Almost every Southern State makes the same showing. Here is the record of Arkansas:

	Dem.	Rep.
1872	38,415	41,681
1876	58,071	38,669
1878	88,728	00,000

The same is true in a lesser degree in Louisiana. There was no general election between 1876 and last year, and for the former year we take the official figures.

	Dem.	Rep.
1876	70,636	75,135
1879	53,994	26,611

Every one of these States—and at least one other, North Carolina—would be Republican upon a full vote, a free ballot and a fair count. General Hancock knows it. Every Democrat knows it. But simply to serve the purposes of the illustration, let us say that these five states are fairly Republican. They give, all told, 39 electoral votes, which will honestly belong to James A. Garfield. The South could then give General Hancock only 99 electoral votes at best, and he could never by any possibility be President of the United States. By all means let us have "a full vote, free ballot and fair count.

The Democratic Party Obedient to the South.

Can the Democratic party be trusted to resist or deny the demands of the South?

The South demanded the annexation of Texas. The Democracy did its bidding.

The South demanded a war with Mexico The Democratic party forced it.

The South demanded the repeal of the Missouri compromise. The Democratic party helped to repeal it.

The South demanded that slavery should be nationalized. The Democratic party assented to it.

The South demanded that Kansas should be made a slave State. The Democratic party tried to make it so.

The South demanded the right to destroy Abolition and Republican documents found in its mails. The Democratic party was silent while it did it.

The South insisted that the Union was but a rope of sand to be broken by any State at will. The Democratic party assented to the doctrine.

The South denied that the Government had the power to coerce a seceding State. A Democratic President and the Democratic party agreed with it.

The South denied the right of the Government to emancipate the slaves. The Democratic party sided with it.

The South denied the power of the Government to reconstruct the Southern States on a basis of loyalty and freedom. The Democratic party joined in the denial.

The South claimed the right to occupy seats in Congress while the blood of the war was yet dripping from its garments. The Democratic party insisted that it had this right.

The South at the end of the war, claimed that the Government had no right to demand guarantees for the future. The Democratic party said the same thing.

The South claimed the right to exclude all colored people from participation in the Government. The Democratic party agreed.

The South claimed the right to exclude colored people from juries. Again the Democratic party agreed,

The South claimed the right to exclude colored people from public conveyances and places of public resort. And the Democratic party sustained the claim.

The South insisted upon putting rebels who served in the Mexican war, including Jefferson Davis, upon the pension rolls. And Democrats voted for this.

The South has insisted that the Democrats should be deaf and dumb and blind to the horrible methods which have produced the solid South and the Democrats have been so.

The list of Southern demands is almost endless, but it has not yet exhausted humiliating Democratic acquiescence. That party has been the servant of the South. It has crouched at its command; it has wallowed at its order; it has been pliant to its touch and obedient to its directions. No instance can be pointed out where the Democracy has made honorable resistance to any one of the most outrageous and indefensible of Southern demands. Not one! How then can it be trusted when the South stands before it with its hundreds of millions of claims, and its demand that the war legislation shall be stricken from the statute books?

DISASTROUS FIRE.

Several Vessels and a Large Amount of Lumber Burned.

NEW YORK, Aug. 11.—The burning hull of an oil laden bark this morning floated against the pier at Hunter's Point, L. I., of the American Lumber Co. The lumber caught fire, the flames spreading rapidly to six barges, a schooner and one ship, all of which were burned, besides a great quantity of lumber, over 10 acres. It is believed the loss will reach $300,000.

Six barges laden with lumber were burned. All the square rigged vessels at the wharf were foreigners. The brig James Miller of Belfast, Me., was unloading lumber; also the American brig Screamer of Portland, and several provincial vessels. With the utmost exertion nearly all were towed into the stream or moored at a safe distance.

It is believed Waterhouse & Co. had in their yard at least 5,000,000 feet of pine lumber, and the Export Co., who are known to have handled last year some 40,000,000 feet, were pretty well filled up. The losses in all respects are calamitous, as the firms were constantly making shipments to all parts of the world. even to Africa, and the interruption of business means partial suspension of the export trade, particularly to the West Indies and South American markets.

The flames are now (2.05 p. m.) still advancing, with the wind from the southwest and blowing directly on the remaining piles, and little can be done to arrest their progress. The spectacle as viewed from the East River or from the New York side is simply grand. Billows of fire seem to roll over many acres, with scarcely an attempt to stay their ravages. Some half-dozen tugs playing feeble streams upon the adjacent property, and the fire departments of Brooklyn and Greenport have a number of engines on the spot, but these latter can do little more than approach the flames on account of the intense heat, and then, taking shelter behind some convenient pile, attempt to save what remains of the immense stacks of lumber nearest to them. There are throngs of spectators idly watching the flames.

The fire was caused by the bursting of burning oil barrels on the barque Nictaux, the flaming oil floating on the water to the wharves and under them, besides enveloping vessels thereat. The fire is bounded on the south side by Newton Creek, and east by the river. The principal sufferers, beside the owners of the vessels, are Watrous & Co. and the Export Lumbering Co. Great indignation is expressed at the fact that the burning vessel was towed into the creek in such close proximity to the great lumber yards and the fleet of vessels there.

[LATER.]

Steam tugs poured water on the burning lumber piles all day. At one time the heat was so intense the firemen could not get within 400 feet of the flames. At dock 4, canal boats which were unloading the lumber schooner Northern Light and receiving cargo and the sloop Harriet, were all totally destroyed. The export company lose $250,000.

The Georgia Democratic Convention.

ATLANTA, Aug. 10.—Convention passed a resolution that after the 32d ballot for a candidate for governor that if no one receives a two thirds vote, the convention recommend to the people Gov. A. H. Colquit. As a result of the 32d ballot Colquit received 220 votes, lacking 15 of two-thirds. Convention then placed in the field an electoral ticket for President and Vice President of the United States. This ticket was nominated by acclamation. The convention adjourned till tomorrow.

Tennessee Democratic Convention.

NASHVILLE, Aug. 10.—The Democratic gubernatorial convention assembled today to nominate a candidate for Governor. Geo. Washington was elected temporary chairman by 940 against 293 for D. L. Snodgrass, a triumph of the state credit Democracy. A recess was then taken.

A permanent organization was effected by the selection of Col. J. D. Tilman for permanent chairman. After the appointment of the usual committees the convention took another recess.

An Illinois Desperado.

JACKSONVILLE, Ill., Aug. 10.—Tom Beckett, formerly a miller, shot and severely wounded two officers who attempted to arrest him yesterday. Some time since, his wife separated from him, and yesterday morning he forcibly entered the house of his mother-in-law in search of his wife, but failed to find her. After exchanging pistol shots with her brother he fled. He was found in a corn field and began firing on the officers with the above result. Beckett was shot in the leg before he surrendered.

Texas Murders and Murderers.

GALVESTON, Texas, Aug. 9.—A News special from Nickelvett Saturday says A Prugal had a difficulty with P. H. Synder and H. M. Walfrom when Synder was killed and Prugal dangerously wounded.

FORT WORTH, Texas, Aug. 9.—William Pickering and son have been arrested for the murder of G. W. Dawson near Harrisburg, Saline county, Ill. nine years ago.

Severe Hail Storm in Vermont.

WHITE RIVER, Aug. 10.—A fearful hail storm occurred at Brookfield, Vt., yesterday afternoon, destroying crops and injuring dwellings.

BY TELEGRAPH.

THE FIRST DISTRICT.

Large and Enthusiastic Republican Convention.

CONGRESSMAN REED RENOMINATED BY ACCLAMATION.

Elisha H. Jewett for Presidential Elector.

[Special Despatch to the Press.]

SACO, Aug. 10.—The Republican District Convention, which met here today, was in many respects a notable gathering. It was very large, all the towns in the District being fully represented. It was composed of men who represented the intelligence and thrift of the counties of York and Cumberland. It was harmonious in every respect. There was no difference of opinion as to who should represent the interests of the First District in the Congress of the Nation, but it was the sentiment of every delegate that no better name could be presented to the voters of the First District than that of our present able and influential representative. Hon. Thomas B. Reed. The task of the convention was therefore an easy one.

The convention was called to order by B. T. Chase, Esq., of Bridgton, member of the District Committee, who invited the Hon. Charles E. Weld of Buxton to the chair. Lewis McLellan of Gorham and Charles E. Thompson of Limington were made temporary secretaries. Prayer was offered by the Rev. George W. Howe of Buxton.

Mr. Higgins of Limerick moved that the District Committee be made a committee of credentials. Carried. The committee reported the whole number of delegates present as 277, the number to which the District is entitled. The following is the list:

The temporary organization was made permanent, with the addition of Albion Little of Portland, Edward P. Burnham of Saco, A. F. Nutting of Otisfield, John Fernald of York, Stephen J. Young of Brunswick, A. K. P. Davis of Newfield, Luther Billings of Bridgton, Thomas Staples of Eliot and J. W. Sargent of Kennebunk as Vice Presidents.

The entrance of Senator Blaine was the signal for loud and long continued applause. After it had subsided Mr. Blaine, in obedience to loud calls, took the platform and discussed the issues of the campaign, making in substance the speech he delivered at Bath Monday evening.

The following were made a committee on resolutions: Leander Valentine of Westbrook, John H. Goodenow of Saco, Wm. A. Winship of Portland, Thomas Hale of Biddeford, Edward Hasty of Gorham.

The District Committee for the coming Congressional term were: Hiram Knowlton of Portland, James F. Brackett of Limington, Charles M. Moses of Biddeford, B. T. Chase of Bridgton, Andrew Hawes of Deering, F. A. Staples of York, Lewis McLellan of Gorham.

At this time the Hon. Nathaniel Hobbs of North Berwick rose to his feet, and in an eloquent and impassioned speech presented the name of the Hon. Thomas B. Reed of Portland as candidate for Congress. The nomination was received with wild and long continued applause. As soon as quiet was restored Mr. Hobbs continued his remarks, and setting forth Mr. Reed's eminent qualifications for the position he now holds, moved in behalf of York county a nomination by acclamation. The motion was earnestly seconded by Mr. John M. Burleigh of South Berwick, son of the late Hon. John H. Burleigh, Mr. Reed's predecessor in Congress. Mr. Burleigh was cheered to the echo, and motions to second then came from all parts of the hall. Col. Robie of Gorham spoke for Cumberland county, and made a vigorous speech for the prospective nominee. The motion of Mr. Hobbs was then put and carried by rising and amid great applause.

F. H. Higgins, J. M. Burleigh and Frederic Robie were constituted a committee to inform Mr. Reed of his nomination. As he came into the hall he was received with loud and long-continued applause. He was called to the front of the platform and spoke as follows:

Mr. Chairman and Gentlemen:

I thank you most heartily for your kind, cordial and hearty greeting. It is more gratifying to me than I can venture to express. My mind involuntarily turns back to a scene four years ago when perhaps partly by my own fault I had to face an assembly far different from this. If I could attribute the change to any merit of mine it would be a very proud moment for me for I reckon among my friends to-day none warmer or truer than the Republicans of York county. But the change is due partly to great good fortune and most of all to your generosity. A man who enters upon public life sleeps on no bed of roses. He must be prepared to be abused as to all he holds truest and best. If he prides himself on uprightness or any virtue he must prepare to find himself put down among the reprobates in the first party newspaper he picks up. But it is such warm and friendly greetings as this which reconcile men to such things.

You must pardon so much of personal talk and listen to just one word of exhortation. We are going to bury these worse than Egyptian foes of ours in a Red Sea of popular wrath. But we must expect no direct interposition from above. We must be the Red Sea ourselves. We must each one of us be one of the waves and I want to see every man lump himself up and make a big one. There never was a time when individual effort was more demanded or will be better rewarded. All the questions of material interest, of tariff, of finance are insignificant compared with the question whether our government is to be at the mercy of any eight wicked men who may get to be governor and council. It is a question of individual liberty. Let there be such an overwhelming condemnation by the people that the thought of this crime may never again be a temptation to any scoundrel of either party so long as the world lives.

The committee on resolutions reported as follows:

Resolved, That we indorse the platform and candidates of the Republican National and State Conventions, and pledge our individual support to the Hon. Thomas B. Reed, our candidate for Congress.

The Hon. F. N. Dow of Portland moved the nomination by acclamation of Elisha H. Jewett of South Berwick, as candidate for Presidential elector, and the motion was carried.

The convention then adjourned, with three rousing cheers for the nominee.

In the evening Mr. Reed addressed a large and enthusiastic meeting at Patten Hall.

COUNTY CONVENTIONS.

Republican Convention at Ellsworth.

A PROMINENT DEMOCRAT DENOUNCES FUSION.

ELLSWORTH, Aug. 10.—The Hancock county Republican convention was held to-day. There was a large attendance. Ambrose White of Bucksport was president. These are the nominations:

Senators—N. T. Hill, Bucksport.
L. A. Emery, Ellsworth.
Clerk—A. B. Saunders, Ellsworth.
Treasurer—Luther Loud, Surry.
Commissioner—John W. Somes, Mt. Desert.
Judge of Probate—Parker Tuck, Buck-port.
Register of Probate—Charles P. Dorr, Ellsworth.

Hon. William P. Frye addressed the convention in the afternoon.

H. D. Hadlock of Bucksport, a leading lawyer and hitherto a prominent Democrat, denounced fusion and declared that he should follow his conviction on the currency and act with the Republicans.

Fusion in York County.

[Special Despatch to the Press.]

ALFRED, Aug. 11.—The Democrats and Greenbackers of York county held their conventions to nominate a county ticket here today. The Greenbackers met in the town hall and the Democrats in the court house. There was a large element in the Greenback convention opposed to fusion but the fusionists after a hard fight prevailed. Mr. William Emery of Alfred was prominent in the convention, working industriously for fusion. The ticket nominated by the Greenbackers and endorsed by Democrats is as follows:

Senators—Ichabod Cole (D.) Eliot; John T. Wedgewood (G.) Cornish; J. Q. Dennett (G.) Biddeford.
Judge of Probate—Hon. Joseph Dane (D) Kennebunk.
Register of Probate—E. H. Gove (G.) Biddeford.
Commissioner—B. Leavitt (D.) Saco.
Treasurer—A. K. P. Meserve (D.) Buxton.
Sheriff—E. F. Lord (G.) Sanford.

After the convention there were two flag raisings and two mass meetings. The attendance was large, though scarcely equalling the number who were present at the Republican convention. A Weaver, Chambers and Plaisted flag was thrown to the breeze amid faint cheering by the Greenbackers, and another bearing the names of Hancock, English, Plaisted and Anderson, by the Democrats. The Greenback meeting was presided over by B. F. Dearborn, and Gen. Plaisted spoke. Ira T. Drew presided at the Democratic meeting and Gen. Anderson spoke.

MAINE.

Greenback Flag Raising at Rockland.

ROCKLAND, Aug. 10.—The Greenbackers unfurled a handsome campaign flag this evening, bearing the names of their candidates. A large crowd was present and Singhi's band furnished music. Mr. L. R. Campbell made the speech of the occasion and led the cheers for the flag and candidates. Subsequently a large meeting was held at Farwell Hall, which was addressed by Elliot King of Belfast.

Heavy Thunder Storm in Bangor.

BANGOR, Aug. 10.—A heavy shower passed over this city this afternoon. It was accompanied by a strong wind which did considerable damage to the large campaign banners. Lightning struck several places. No serious damage was done.

NEW YORK.

Indictments Growing Out of the Seawanhaka Disaster.

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—The United States grand jury to-day made a presentment in the Seawanhaka disaster, that the accident was due to criminal carelessness and negligence of certain government officials and the officers and owners of the vessel. They found indictments against Austen Jaynes and Andrew Craft, inspector of life boats, against John K. Mathews and Alexander Caldwell, inspectors of boiler machinery, and against Charles B. Smith, captain, and Edgar Weeks, engineer of the steam, and against a number of directors and owners. Warrants will be issued immediately.

The grand jury, in their presentment, recommend an amendment to the revised statutes making it a misdemeanor for carrying excessive number of passengers. They recommend the repeal of the section under which steamboat owners seek to escape responsibility for accidents. Seveee laws are advised for the punishment of careless or reckless pilots, and the President and Congress are asked for appointments of commissioners for the revision of the navigation laws governing the steamboat inspection service and for the establishment of uniform rules thereunder.

National Democratic Committee.

A meeting of the National Democratic executive committee was held at noon with closed doors to hear the report of Chairman Barnum on his trip. Among those present were Edmund Wilson of Maine.

Attempt to Steal a Manufacturing Secret.

James Mercher was arrested last evening at French's Hotel on a charge of burglariously entering the wire cloth works, Nos. 1269 and 1211 DeKalb avenue, Brooklyn, of which J H. Dwight is proprietor. The prisoner, who is employed by W. S. Tyler, wire manufacturer of Cleveland, O., is alleged to have entered the place in order to obtain information as to the manner of manufacturing wire cloth. He is held for examination.

Serious Illness of Peter Cooper.

Peter Cooper is quiet ill. His son, Mayor Cooper, was sent for last night.

The Coming World's Fair.

The commissioners of the United States International Exhibition of 1883 assembled in the Governor's room at City Hall at noon, Col. Stebbins of New York being temporary chairman. The session was opened by Rev. Dr. Newman with prayer. Mayor Cooper welcomed and extended the hospitalities of the city to the commissioners.

On motion of Mr. Hunt, a committee on credentials was appointed. Ex-Governor Patten addressed the commissioners, and deprecated in discussions all allusions to politics. Ex-Lieut. Gov. Crawford of Kansas thought the commissioners should make the fair the greatest the world has even seen. Mr. Sperry of Connecticut was anxious to have the site at once decided on, as he thought financial men would then come forward with the necessary funds. Richard Henry Lee of Virginia spoke of the peaceful effect the exhibition would have upon the entire country.

Committees on by-laws and temporary organization were appointed after which Samuel A. Haines, chairman of the committee on site, presented a long report and a special committee of 12 was appointed to visit the localities mentioned in such report. A letter was read from Hancock assuring the commissioners of his interest in the undertaking.

WASHINGTON.

The Alleged Spanish Outrages.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—Commodore Jeffers does not anticipate any reports from the frigate Powhattan, recently arrived from Cuban waters. He says the vessel is not specially instructed to inquire into the boarding of schooner George Washington, as has been stated, but to learn anything possible in regard to the alleged outrages in a general way. The Commodore added that while the United States would keep a vessel in Spanish waters, he did not apprehend any further indignities to the United States flag since so much excitement had been caused throughout the country by those heretofore imposed.

The Arctic Whaling Fleet.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Aug. 10.—Schooner Leo, seventeen days from Ounalaska, brings news from the Arctic whaling fleet to July 18th, at which date bark Coral had 150 barrels of walrus oil; schooner Alaska, 150 barrels of walrus; bark Dawn, 50 barrels of walrus; brig Ridalgo, 200 barrels of whale; bark Francis Palmer, 250 barrels walrus; bark Pacific, 300 barrels walrus; brig Tropic Bird, 150 barrels sperm, 200 barrels whale and 100 barrels walrus oil; steam whaler Mary Ellen, 100 barrels whale and 150 walrus oil; bark Rainbow, 150 barrels walrus. The whole fleet had taken but nineteen whales for the season up to July 17th. Bark Coral, of New Bedford, had been within a short distance of Point Hope, but was compelled to return on account of ice. Nothing has been heard from the Jeannette or the missing whalers.

The Fire in Keeley Run Colliery.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., Aug. 10.—Night and day forces have been working at Keeley Run colliery trying to subdue the fire raging in the side but cannot approach very near on account of the gas. A great many men were prostrated by the gas last night. The most skilful mining engineers have been on the ground all day and are now trying to smother the fire by closing up all the openings.

Population of Massachusetts.

BOSTON, Aug. 10.—The aggregate census returns show the population of Massachusetts to be 1,783,812, an increase of 19 per cent over the last census.

EUROPE.

The Outrage in Ireland.

LONDON, Aug. 10.—Eleven persons have been arrested in connection with the outrage on Thomas Boyd and sons near New Ross, Ireland, Sunday night, including three evicted tenants, two strangers and a woman who had been seen giving a sign to the assassins by waving a handkerchief.

Fine Weather in England.

The weather in England is exceeding fine and favorable for the harvest.

Republican Gains in France.

PARIS, Aug. 10.—The final results of the election for council generals in France show that 1012 Republicans were elected, and 305 Reactionaries, being a gain of 300 seats for the Republicans.

An Expelled Editor.

LONDON, Aug. 11.—Baron Hickey, the expelled editor of the anti-Republican paper "Le Tribouiet," is a native of the United States, whose ancestors emigrated from Ireland. The reactionary papers protest against his expulsion on the ground that he has long resided in France and had made a very generous use of his large fortune.

A Distinguished Austria on Trial.

VIENNA, Aug. 10.—The trial of Gen. Probaska, charged with defrauding a French company in selling them concessions of certain property at San Marino, was commenced Monday. The trial causes a great sensation, Von Probaska being one of the most distinguished Austrian generals.

The Powers and the Porte.

In the Commons this afternoon, Dilke, in replying to an inquiry, said the statement that the Powers invited the Porte to participate in coercise measures against the Albanians was substantially correct.

A Constantinople dispatch says Mr. Goschen, British ambassador to Turkey, has informed Abeddin Pasha that the Powers will not consent to any change of the Greek frontier as fixed by the Berlin conference. Consequently the new line proposed by Turkey cannot be accepted.

A Constantinople dispatch to the Times says: The collective note on the Montenegrin question, presented on the 3d, invited the Porte in case of non-satisfaction of the Montenegrin claims, to participate in coercive measures, which the Powers intend to employ against the Albanians if they persist in armed opposition. The Foreign office evidently understood this as an invitation to participate in a naval demonstration, but it will probably turn out that the Powers intend to ask Turkey to send a land force to co-operate with the fleets of the Powers. There seems good reason to hope that coercive measures will be unnecessary.

AFGHANISTAN.

Ayoob Khan Wounded by His Own Men.

CANDAHAR, Aug. 10.—Deserters from Ayoob Khan's army state that the Herat and Cabules troops fought Nakud, and Ayoob Khan was wounded in trying to separate them.

Defensive works have been completed. Burroughs' loss will not exceed 1000, including 400 Europeans and 21 officers. Ayoob Khan' forces are very large but undisciplined.

To the Medical Faculty and the Public Generally.

Having recently closed a contract with Major W. Z. Clayton, Liquor Commissioner for the State of Maine, for a choice line of our celebrated "HARDY" Whiskies manufactured in Louisville, Ky., by Milton J. Hardy & Co., we desire to call attention to the following letter received by us from Dr. H. L. Bowker, State Assayer for Massachusetts, as a guarantee of the quality of whiskies kept at the Maine State Agency.

STATE ASSAYER'S OFFICE, 132 Milk Street,
DR. H. L. BOWKER, State Assayer, PROF. CHAS. E. AVERY, Associate.
BOSTON, June 22, 1880.

To MILTON J. HARDY & CO.:
Gentlemen: Please find appended the results of the chemical analysis of the (6) six samples of whiskies, known by the trade mark as Hardy Whiskies. Careful tests have been made of each sample, both by myself and my asssociate, Prof. Chas. E. Avery. They contain no adulterations whatever; are full strength, clean, pure, and composed of the very best materials. I have no hesitation in giving them the highest recommendation where a pure and excellent article of whisky is required.

W. I. G.—Miss Ruth Morton.
W. M.—J. C. Sawyer.
W. D. M.—Miss Jennie Davis.
W. V. T.—Miss Alice Plummer.
W. F. S.—Mis Vinie D. Leach.
W. T.—E. M. Watkins.
W. S.—S. C. Watkins.
W. A. S.—Miss Abbie L. Mussey.
W. C. T.—Fred W. Plummer.
W. R. H. S.—Miss Alice P. Morton.
W. L. H. S.—Miss Issie Plummer.
P. W. C. T.—L. W. Welch.

Among others initiated at the last meeting was Miss Mary Danforth of Chicago a promising teacher in one of the principal schools of that city, who at present is visiting relatives in this villiage. The lodge is in a very prosperous condition numbering about ninety members. The paper which consists in part of the programme for the next evening, will be prepared by Miss Abbie J. Brown.

Fire in Gray.

Monday afternoon a young lady residing in Gray took some hot ashes into a barn and emptied them there. She had no idea there was heat enough to do damage. The barn caught fire and if it had not been for the exertions of the neighbors, who pulled down the barn, the fire would have swept South Gray.

A SPLENDID DEMONSTRATION.

THE FIRST PARADE OF THE REPUBLICAN CAMPAIGN CLUBS.

A Magnificent Garfield and Arthur Flag Raised.

Portland was all alive last night and this without any special effort. The citizens took hold with right good will and they gave a most cheering and hearty welcome to the Republican campaign organizations that made their first appearance on this occasion. Not only did crowds follow the procession over the line of march; but, at all prominent corners, the walks were thronged with people, and doorsteps and the steps of public buildings were packed with spectators.

At 8 p. m. precisely the line was formed under the command of Capt. Osborne of the Pioneers, in the following order:

Drum Major. C. W. Bean.
Chandler's Band, 25 pieces.
Garfield and Arthur Drum Corps—Commander Hinds, 40 drums.
Republican Artillery—Capt. Morrill, 17 men.
Portland Pioneers—Lieut. Frank Perry, 60 torches.

There were about one hundred torches in line.

The route was taken according to the published programme. The drum corps played with an accuracy and precision that was a subject of remark by all veterans, while the Pioneers marched and wheeled like old soldiers. The uniforms of the men were very striking and lighted up well in the glare of the torches; the white pants, red jackets slashed with white, and white caps with red bands, of the drum corps, and the black coats with gold cords, red shirts and blue pants of the Pioneers were effective and tasteful.

No request had been made for illuminations and yet many houses blazed with lights from top to bottom. Deering street and New State street presented a magnificent appearance. The great four and five story houses presented a charming spectacle, thrown open as they were to the gaze of the multitude. It seemed as if the residents of both political complexions must have vied with each other to make these streets a feast to the eye. On Congress street, among the many attractive residences, were those of City Treasurer Hersey, Col. F. N. Dow, the handsome block numbered from 762 to 766, and Mr. A. M. Smith's. Hon. G. W. Woodman's and Hon. J. B. Brown's elegant establishments, situated on such eminences, reached the eye from a great distance. On Spring street, Gov. Washburn's, Hon. G. P. Wescott's, Mr. Fletcher's, Mr. Whitney's, and in fact the whole upper part of the street, was brilliantly illuminated.

We select the few names mentioned above at random out of the many, because they are well known and because it would have been impossible at the moment to collect the names of all. We should not omit the pretty illuminations of Councilman Jordan, Mr. John Hussey and Mr. Geo. J. Hodgdon on Portland street.

When the procession reached Elm street, on its way up Cumberland, it met the Garfield and Arthur Glee Club, 130 strong, Capt. Clark, which saluted them and fell in to the rear of the line.

At 8 o'clock a flag bearing the names of Garfield and Arthur, and Daniel F. Davis, was raised on Portland street, between Parris and Green streets. There was a great crowd in attendance, largely composed of voters, and while no elaborate attempt had been made at an illumination the effect of the Chinese lanterns, placed in front of many of the houses, was very pretty. Mr. Henry Trickey's house, on the corner of Parris and Portland streets was handsomely decorated with flags and lanterns, the centre banneret bearing the names of the Republican candidates. A Union jack extended over the rear of the speaker's stand, and the fireworks, consisting of bombs, rockets and Roman candles, under the charge of Mr. George Hopgdon, made a beautiful display.

At 8 o'clock the procession arrived, and the Hon. J. H. Drummond called the meeting to order. The flag was at once raised, flinging out its folds amid the repeated cheers of the great throng of earnest Republicans in attendance, with the band playing "Rally round the Flag" and the artillery adding its hoarse roar. The members of the Glee Club present then sang the refrain of the grand war song, that the band was playing, showing that the club will be sure to add to the interest of many Republican meetings during this campaign.

Mr. Drummond then spoke briefly. He had come to salute the flag that the Republican party had done so much to maintain. The Democratic party sixteen years ago declared the war was a failure, but the Republican party in advancing has drawn with it even the Democratic party, and while the later contents itself with occupying the stations that the Republicans have left, that is something. Outside of this State Greenbackers have no hope; here, it is a question whether the Democrats are to swallow the Greenbackers or the Greenbackers the Democrats. Some had accused Republicans of helping the opposition to get themselves complicated beyond hope of extrication, but such a course would be a mere waste of time; as all that is necessary to do is to let them alone, and they will quickly effect what none of us could possibly plan for them. But he did not come to make a speech, but to salute anew the flag of the Nation, with not a star the less, thanks to the bravery of the soldiers of the north, and the steadfast devotion of the Republican party to the cause of the Union.

At the close of Mr. Drummond's brief address, the band played "Columbia," and the Hon. J. A. Locke followed in an able speech.

He believed in Republican success this fall, and the election of Gen. Garfield to be as much demanded in the interest of National unity, as was the election in 1860, of Abraham Lincoln. The Democratic party, not content with stealing states in the south had attempted the same thing here in Maine.

At the close of Mr. Locke's speech, Clarence Hale, Esq., was introduced and spoke very briefly, predicting the election of Gen. Garfield, and the triumph of right. The Democratic party he described as a party of mere negatives, with no fixed principles. When the Republican party had said that the Union could and would be saved, the Democratic party had denied it. When the Republican party said that the negro must be protected in his rights, the Democratic party denied it. When we said that the debt must be paid, and a dollar made a dollar everywhere, the Democratic party denied it.

The Hon. Wilbur F. Lunt was introduced by Mr. Drummond but declined to make a speech. He believed that the Republican party will win a glorious victory this fall. He led in giving three cheers for the Republican party and the candidates.

The procession then marched on amidst the the booming of cannon, blaze of fireworks and cheers.

When the procession reached Hon. J. B. Brown's they passed through his grounds and halted while they tendered him a serenade to which he bowed his acknowledgements.

Personals.

The Rev. Frederick Frothingham, formerly pastor of Park St. Church, was in the city Sunday, the guest of Hon. George F. Talbot.

Professor Carmichael and wife of Bowdoin College are in the city as guests of George A. Thomas, Esq.

Rev. C. F. Allen, the former pastor of the Chestnut St. Methodist Church, is on a visit to the city.

Gen. H. M. Plaisted is at the United States Hotel.

H. B. Brown and family, J. P. Baxter and family, E. H. Elwell, wife and daughter, T. J. Little and family are stopping at Thomas Eastman's, North Conway.

Quite a number of Portland gentlemen spent last Sunday at the Poland Springs House. A popular conductor on one of the railroads running out of this city acted as musical conductor at the services held in the parlor.

Narrow Escape from Death.

Yesterday Mr. E. P. Doyen, who is in the employ of C. M. & H. T. Plummer, No. 11 Union street, had a narrow escape from being killed while at work in Kelley's foundry on Cross street. An emery wheel burst and a section of it was thrown with great violence upward, hitting the timbers of the shop and, in the recoil, knocking him down and inflicting severe injuries about the head and face. Considering all the circumstances of the case, his escape from instant death was hardly less than miraculous.

Sunstroke.

We learn that a man in Deering was affected by the sun yesterday and was brought to this city.

EATING CROW.

The Democrats Make an Enormous Meal on the Bird.

ALL BUT TWO SENATORS GIVEN TO THE GREENBACKERS.

The Democratic County Convention met at headquarters at 10:30 o'clock yesterday morning and was called to order by A. F. Moulton Esq., chairman of the county committee. The hall was filled with spectators as well as delegates.

Mr. Moulton read the published call, and then said it devolved upon the meeting to nominate candidates imbued with the grand principles of the good old Democratic party, those of economy and honesty. He eulogized in the most glowing terms those veteran Democrats—Hancock and Plaisted—true types of Democracy, and said the Convention means to send Gen. Anderson to Congress. Strange to say the name of that popular candidate was received with but little applause. He begged the convention to give them a good county ticket, men entitled to their support, and they would all go to work and elect them, and not talk.

Mr. Moulton then announced Capt. J. T. Turner, of Bridgton, for temporary chairman of the convention, with Charles Burleigh and George B. Emery of Gorham, for secretaries.

Mr. Payson of Portland moved that the temporary organization be made permanent, but the chairman reminded him that he was too much in a hurry as the committee on credentirls had not yet reported, and it was not known who had a right to vote.

It was moved that the county committee be made a committee on credentials, which was carried, and Mr. Anderson, of Portland, reported that of the full number of 137 delegates, 135 were present.

Mr. Pierce, of Portland. moved a committee of five to numinate a county committee and he was quickly informed that he was out of order until the organization of the convention was made permanent. This little lapse was quickly supplied on motion of Mr. Payson, who urged his former motions to that effect, and then ensued quite an excitement. It appeared that the county committee had decided to urge the enlarging of the committee from eleven to twenty, so that each representative district in the county could be represented and thus, as they claimed, the organization be made more effective. Each representative district was to nominate their own member of the committee and the above arrangement was reported by Mr. Andrews for the committee, with the further understanding that the committee was to serve two years.

Then Mr. Pierce of Portland said one district understood this arrangement had been made by unanimous vote of this committee, and he thought it a very undemocratic proceeding. Mr. Moulton of Scarboro said the old committee was large enough in point of numbers perhaps for some purposes, but not large enough to keep in strict communicaton with all parts of this county. If increased to 20, such a committee would nominate an executive committee which would carry out Mr. Pierce's idea.

Mr. Pierce said by the suggestion of an executive committee to be selected from the county committee the other side virtually gave way their whole case. If they increase the number of the committee the cry of ring rule will be raised from those members not appointed on the executive committee. They will say favoritism kept them off. (We always supposed everything the Democratic leaders did the others thought was right.) He believed in the town committee doing their own work instead of trusting to an unwieldy county committee. He also wanted the convention to understand that a new apportionments of districts would be made by the next legislature and that the committee should be appointed so as to keep the full Democratic strength unimpaired.

A delegate said he thought the committee knew their business and ought to be supported, especially if they could carry the county, and he believed in carrying out their suggestions.

Mr. Andrews, of Portland, said all they wanted was to get a perfect organization, and that the town committee work would not be interfered with.

The question was then put and the committee's motion was carried. It was divided as Mr. Pierce had moved, a committee of five to select a town committee, so that his motion had to be reconsidered to allow the districts to choose their representative members on the committee. The following is the new county committee:

Baldwin—G. H. Norton.
Bridgton—Capt. J. T Jenner
Brunswick—W. R. Field.
Cape Elizabeth— Geo. Fickett.
Harrrison—Alonzo Moulton.
Deering—Solomon Stuart.
Cumberland—H. R. Mountfort.
Pownal—G. A. Sleeper.
Gorham—Dan'l F. Watson.
Westbrook—A.S. Gore.
Yarmouth— Capt. R. Harding.
Windham—E. H. Mayo.
Scarboro—A. F. Moulton.
Gray—J. Whiting
Raymond—G. P. Davis.
Portland—Chas. McCarthy, G. E. Bird, B. F. Andrews, E. S. Redlon, T. F. Donahue.

Col. Lyman moved that the Convention divide into four Senatorial districts and then report on candidates for Senators.

Mr. E. L. Pope, of Sebago, said the Greenback party was holding a Convention, and that, as a union was to be effected, the best way to get at results was through a committee of conference. If, said he, we should nominate for Senators we couldn't get but two, and if we should claim a certain two, then the Greenbackers might want those very two. So we had better see what we can have. He made a motion for a committee of conference of three. Another member requested it be increased to five. The chairman requested them to go easy, as he couldn't attend to more than one thing at a time. Mr. Poor accepted the amendment, and the chairman named E. L. Poor of Sebago, J. M. Adams of Portland, Samuel Rolfe, Portland, Jacob Farr, Harpswell, and T. H. Haskell, Cape Elizabeth, Then a member objected to Mr. Poor on the committee, but his motion was not carried. Then it was announced that Adams and Rolfe were not present. Mr. G. E. Bird was named, but declined. Mr. C. E. Morrill was named, but was absent. Finally the committee stood E. L. Poor, Sebago, James M. Bates, Yarmouth, C. H. Fling, Portland, Jacob Farr, Harpswell, and Thomas H. Haskell, Cape Elizabeth.

A delegate moved that the committee report as soon as possible.

Mr. Poor said he supposed they'd have sense enough to do that.

Mr, Sleeper of Freeport moved a committee of five on resolutions. Lewis Pierce and Charles McCarthy, Portland, George B. Emery, Gorham, Charles Littlefield, Bridgton, and C. S. Snow, Pownal, were appointed.

Convention adjourned to 2 p. m.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The afternoon session was called to order at 2 o'clock.

On motion of Mr. Andrews it was voted that all vacancies occurring in the County Committee should be filled by the town committees where the vacancies occurred.

Mr. Poor, of the conference committee, reported that the committee had a long session with a like committee appointed by the Greenbackers. The result was that the Greenback committee reported themselves in this condition:—That the Greenback convention stood 58 in favor of union with the Democrats to 55 opposed, a majority of only three in favor. [A deep gloom seemed to settle on the convention at this announcement.] They said they were only authorized to allow the Democrats two Senators, and they might take whatever two they wanted, which proposition the Democratic committee accepted finally, although they tried hard to have the County Commissioner added, which was declined. The committee stood four in favor of accepting the Greenback proposition to one opposed, and the report was at the disposition of the convention.

On motion of Mr. Sleeper, of Freeport, the report was accepted and the recommendation adopted, and we will do the Democrats the justice to say they took the dose of crow bravely, although, as one prominent member whispered to the reporter, "I wanted to get up and tell them that if half of that convention didn't want to fuse, as far as I was concerned I didn't care a d—n, and they might go to h—ll."

Mr. C. H. Fling, from the committee, said (prior to the adoption of this report) he didn't understand that in their conference any special demand was made or accepted. The Greenback committee stated just how they were placed. Their convention was not harmonious. It appeared as if some peculiar influence had been at work to change the complexion of the convention as compared with the late District conventions. Still we said we can't do any better, taking everything into consideration, and we concluded we couldn't have harmony anyway without agreeing to their propositions. In fact, we didn't see how we could do any better under the circumstances. [This frank avowal was actually received with applause, but was explained by several of the delegates sotto voce, who said they guessed they knew what they were about. We have got those fellows to agree to Anderson said they with great glee.]

Mr. Sleeper of Freeport nominated William R. Field of Brunswick for Senator from the Eastern district, and the nomination was carried by acclamation.

Capt. J. J. Lynch nominated Daniel W. True for Senator from the Portland district, and the nomination was carried by acclamation.

Capt. C. H. Chase moved that the conference committee notify the Greenback convention of these nominations, and report as soon possible and a recess was taken.

Mr. Poor, from the committee to notify the Greenback convention of the nominations of this convention, reported that they were accepted without a dissenting voice. (Applause.)

The convention then took a recess to await news from the Greenback convention.

Mr. C. A. Chaplin, chairman of the committee from the Greenback convention, reported the acceptance of the two Senators from this convention by acclamation. He then announced their nominations, and stated that they were appealing from the decision of the Supreme Court to that supreme tribunal, the people, in the case of Mr. Skillin, the candidate for County Commissioner, and D. W. True for Senator. The nominations were accepted by a rising vote with great applause.

The committee on resolutions reported, pledging support to the Cincinnati platform and the candidates of this convention. The report was adopted and three cheers given; also three cheers for Gen. Hancock, "the next President of the United States," and a tiger added on motion of an excited delegate. As they were about to adjourn it was remarked that Plaisted had been forgotten and three cheers were given for him and then three added for Anderson and the presiding officer.

The convention adjourned at 3.20 p. m.

The Greenback Convention.

At ten minutes of ten o'clock yesterday Reception hall was cleared of all but the reporters and the Rev. W. F. Eaton of Cape Elizabeth. The delegates were then admitted by ticket. Prior to the clearing of the hall there was a good deal of not very good natured controversy going on. Mr. John B. Chase remarked to the PRESS reporter that the anti-Anderson men stand where they did when they left the Reception hall district convention, and organized a convention of their own at Congress hall. John M. Todd moved about the hall prior to the calling of the convention to order, in rather a restless manner, interviewing the delegates pretty freely. Mr. Johd B. Chase must have given Mr. Todd but coln comfort, as he expressed pretty freely his opinion that if there was an attempt made to endorse Anderson the straight Greenbackers would make themselves heard. For a Greenback convention there was rather an overproduction of ministers, the Rev. Mr. Butterfield of Deering, the man who conducted the remarkable religious services at the Greenback State convention in 1878, and Rev. W. F. Eaton being present.

The Rev. W. F. Eaton, the chairman of the county committee, called the convention to order, and made a brief address, expressing the hope that the delegates had come prepared to exercise charity toward others, and not think that because a man differs from others that he is not honest. The time has come to nominate men fitted for office, not merely because they want office. Let us nominate our own men, and send them out feeling that the people want them. We should aim to represent the Greenback party.

The Rev. S. Butterfield of Deering offered prayer.

Mr. C. E. Clifford was announced as the temporary chairman and took the chair.

E. O. Moulton of Cape Elizabeth declined to act as secretary, and A. W. Smart of Cape Elizabeth did the same, and Mr. E. R. Woodbury of Falmouth was chosen but declined on the ground that "this is the first convention I ever attended and I am somewhat green."

Horace Allen of Portland was then elected, and also declined, and Mr. S. Chenery of Portland was nominated and declined on "account of ill health," and Mr. John B. Chase was nominated and declined, "wishing to be on the floor during the entire session." William M. Blanchard of Cumberland was next elected and wanted to be excused, but the convention thought it couldn't do it and he concluded to act.

On motion of the Hon. Caleb A. Chaplin the county committee was made a committee on credentials. Mr. S. A. Berry had already attended to the duty of that committee.

The Rev. W. F. Eaton reported that every town but two was represented by 154 delegates.

Mr. John M. Todd wanted to know what towns were not represented, but he didn't find out.

On motion of Mr. W. G. Dow of Gray the temporary organization was made permanent.

Mr. Clifford thanked the convention for the honor conferred upon him. He cautioned the convention to proceed with care and nominate their best men.

Mr. John B. Chase of Cape Elizabeth moved to proceed to a ballot for a candidate for sheriff to be supported by the Greenbackers of the county of Cumberland.

W. N. Dow of Gray moved that the vote be informal.

Mr. Chaplin of Harrison said that he favored fusion and was hissed violently. He went on however and advocated a consultation with the Democrats. He moved for a committee of conference to see if "we are to have a sheriff or not." Why were the fusionists beaten last year. Read the New Era-Leader of last week for the answer. It "waited" and the responsibility for the defeat of last year rests with it. He moved a committee of five for conference.

Mr. John B. Chase said that he was not here for fusion, and he was greeted with wild applause, delegates waving their hats over their heads. We have come here, he said, for the third time. Twice we have been sold out. If it is done again what will be the result? (Several shouted "defeat.") We fuse with the Democracy and in September where will we stand? What will be our position in regard to this three to four arrangement? The Democratic platform is a hard money one, and there is something else. What about paying our honest debts. Half of the states represented in the Democratic National Convention had already repudiated their debts. Men have been taking Democratic money and the result is that an attempt has been made to sell us out. (Mr. John M. Todd interrupted the speaker but was ruled out of order.) Mr. Chase denounced the sell-out to Gen. Anderson, and wanted to see the Greenbackers fall back into their original independent position.

Mr. Chaplin made a fusion speech. He was proud of having aided in the nomination of Gen. Anderson. (A voice, "And Gen. Hancock too.") He was applauded and hissed. "I challenge any man, with the exception of Mr. J. F. Turner, to show that he has spent more money for the cause than I." He made an attack on Mr. John B. Chase, saying that Mr. Chase had said things that the PRESS would not have said. He didn't propose to take another dose like that given him by the Ner Era-Leader of last week.

The Rev. W. F. Eaton announced that he should reply to Mr. Chaplin in due time, and moved that the doors be opened.

Mr. Chaplin moved to lay all motions on the table. Carried—60 to 54, a rising vote.

Mr. Dow, of Gray, tried again to have the doors opened.

Mr. Chaplin moved to take from the table his motion for a committee of five for conference with the Democrats.

The question was put, carried, doubted and decided by a rising vote in the affirmative, 58 to 55.

Mr. Elias Norwood said that he would move to appoint a committee of five to meet a committee of Republicans in conference. "I shall not vote for a Democrat."

Mr. Dow, of Gray, asked the delegates who did not propose to support the candidates nominated at that time to withdraw.

The motion for a committee of five was taken, Mr. J. F. Turner first speaking, saying that this question in regard to a committee is by many deemed injudicious. If intending to divide the county ticket, it seemed to him that they had better do it without conference.

Mr. Todd wanted to know how the ticket could be divided.

Mr. Turner said by nominating the whole ticket in the Greenback convention.

Mr. Chaplin of Harrison argued in favor of his motion. The motion for the appointment of a committee of five with the Democrats was carried, 58 to 55.

Mr. Thomas P. Place of Portland moved that the committee be appointed by the chair carried.

Caleb H. Chaplin, L. W. Moulton, J. F. Turner, John B. Chase and W. B. Skillin were appointed that committee and they were directed to report at 2 o'clock.

Mr. John B. Chase said that he should abide by the nominations of this convention, but declined to serve on the committee.

Mr. Clifford said that he should appoint in place of Mr. Chase—["I move Mr. Edwards of Portland," said John M. Todd,] and Mr. Clifford replied that the chair was about to appoint Mr. E. O. Moulton of Cape Elizabeth.

Mr. E. O. Moulton declined to act and Mr. William N. Dow was appointed in his place.

The following county committee was chosen:

P. W. Binford, Baldwin.
Edwin C. Wentworth, Bridgton.
John Murray, Brunswick.
W. F. Eaton, Cape Elizabeth.
Spencer Decker, Casco.
W. S. Blanchard, Cumberland.
Samuel A. Berry, Deering.
John Woodbury, Falmouth.
William Anderson, Freeport.
J. W. Parker, Gorham.
William N. Dow, Gray.
George S. Fitts, Harrison.
George M. Knight, Naples.
David McIntyre, New Gloucester.
W. B. Skillin, North Yarmouth.
S. P. Wardwell, Otisfield.
Portland—Ward 1; A. H. Waite; ward 2, W. H. Sargent; ward 3, John M. Todd; ward 4, C. E. Clifford; ward 5, Spencer Rogers; ward 6, J. M. Parker; ward 7, J. F. Turner.
Nathaniel Dyer, Pownal.
O. P. Jordan, Raymond.
J. F. Stacy, Scarborough.
Amos Ward, Sebago.
Edward Thompson, Standish.
I. F. Quimby, Westbrook.
Cyrus T. Parker, Windham.
Asa F. York, Yarmouth.
Not filled, Harpswell.

On motion of John M. Todd the committee on conference was instructed to report at 2 o'clock.

On motion of John B. Chase a recess was taken.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Prompt to the minute Mr. Clifford called the convention to order at 2 o'clock, and announced that the first business in order would be receive the report of the committee on conference.

The Hon. C. A. Chaplin of Harrison from that committee reported that it had been agreed that the Greenback convention should nominate the county treasurer, commissioner and sheriff, and also the senators in the Northern and Western districts. The report was adopted.

The convention nominated D. W. True of Portland, Wm. R. Field of Brunswick, Spencer Decker of Casco and the Rev. W. F. Eaton of Cape Elizabeth, for senators by acclamation, the Democratic convention reporting the nomination of True and Fields through Mr. Poor of Sebago.

Cyrus Green of Deering was nominated for county treasurer, and W. B. Skillin for county commissioner, Mr. Todd presenting the name of Mr. Skillin as that of a "man who insisted that the Supreme Court should say that he was not elected last year."

The vote for sheriff resulted as follows:

Whole number of votes	130
Necessary to a choice	66
I. D. Sawyer	85
I. D. Cushman	36
G. W. Parker	9

On motion of Mr. I. D. Cushman the nomination of Mr. I. D. Sawyer of Standish was made unanimous.

Chaplin of Harrison, Decker of Casco and Eaton of Cape Elizabeth, were appointed a committee to visit the Democratic convention. Speech-making was then indulged in, Mr. John M. Todd pointing out the necessity of fusion, attacking Mr. Reed and eulogizing Gen. Anderson, and Mr. J. F. Turner, saying that he was pretty well satisfied with the ticket though he should have preferred to have the whole.

The convention after adopting the resolutions of the Greenback state convention adourned.

The Cameron-Lstes Plow.

The Cameron-Estes Plow Company gave an exhibition and test trial of their newly patented roller plow in Deering yesterday afternoon, and the trial proved in every way a satisfactory one. One of the principal points of superiority in the plow is that the mold board has three rollers, five inches in length and three in diameter, arranged at right angles with the curvature of the sheer, and also three on the land side. These project through the sides of the plow about 5-8 of an inch and have the effect to carry off a large amount of friction, in some cases it is claimed as high as 60 per cent. The plow did not clog in the least, it being arranged so that every root or twig that got between the rollers and the side was cut as if by the knife of a plane.

The first trial was in a heavy sward, with the roller plow which turned a furrow 20 inches wide and 8 inches deep, and the number of pounds registered by Fairbanks' dynamometer in drawing the plow was 525, on the average. This was an iron plow and it is claimed that steel will reduce the above figure considerably. The next plow was Cameron & Co.'s best No. 4 iron, which took by the meter 750 pounds to turn a furrow 17 inches wide and seven inches deep, which showed the superiority of the new plow. The Cameron plow used in this trial was the one that made so fine a record at the Maine State Fair three years ago, being 300 pounds lighter draft than any competing plow. A large number of people witnessed the work and all expressed themselves well satisfied with the trial. The manufacturers have had inducements offered to remove to Saccarappa, but our capitalists should see that this industry be permanently located in Portland.

Orphan Asylum Excursion.

The annual excursion in aid of the Catholic Orphan Asylum takes place to-day at Hog Island. The steamer Gazelle has been chartered for the occasion, and will leave Portland Pier at 8 a. m. and every hour after. The object is such that calls for a large attendance. An efficient committee have the matter in charge and have left nothing undone that will tend to make it a day of pleasure for all who may attend.

Temperance Campmeeting.

A temperance campmeeting will be held on Richmond camp ground, beginning August 14th and lasting through the 16th. Among the speakers will be J. K. Osgood, Gen. James A. Hall, Rev. D. W. LeLacheur, Hon. T. R. Simonton, Rev. J. Benson Hamilton and Hon. Nelson Dingley, Jr. A series of evangelistic meetings will be given at the close of the temperance meeting.

Real Estate Transfers.

The following real estate transfers were recorded in this county yesterday:

Deering—Michael O'Connor to Alexander A. McKone, lot of land.

Yarmouth—Aaron Freeman to Janette C. Freeman, land and buildings.

Standish—Seth Decker to Nancy Decker, land and buildings.

Parker A. Jenness to Seth Decker, land at Steep Falls.

POETRY.

Arcadia

Ah me! to lie along
A little brook, a shepherd from a song, &c.
A little babbling brook, and plait the reeds,
To watch the dance young Amaryllis leads;
To hum a catch of Pan and Nymph and Faun,
Laughing and leaping on the upland lawn;
To taste new milk, to sleep before the sun,
Wake with the sheep, and with the sheep-dog run;
To plunge in brawling stream, rest on the sod
As free and naked as a woodland god—
Ah, to be there! How far is't?

Wit and Wisdom.

A Colorado man can take a rifle and put a bullet into an old straw hat 1,000 yards away every time, but he doesn't get down on the ground and tangle himself all up to do it, so he isn't considered a good rifleman by the average amateur.—Boston Post.

No Good Preaching.

No man can do a good job of work, preach a good sermon, try a law suit well, doctor a patient, or write a good article when he feels miserable and dull, with sluggish brain and unsteady nerves, and none should make the attempt in such a condition when it can be so easily and cheaply removed by a little Hop Bitters. See other column.—Albany Times.

There is a fortune in store for the genius who shall produce a boiler-iron shoe for the small boy. Something warranted to last two weeks is what is wanted.

The individual who saw a mouse fighting with a piece of Limburger cheese readily realized that the battle is not always to the strong.—Philadelphia Chronicle Herald.

Dr. Hall says that every blade of grass contains a sermon. We can understand why some shave their lawn down so close; they want the sermon cut short.—Keokuk Gate City.

Feeble and exhausted constitutions restored to health and strength by Malt Bitters.

A Cambridge mother sent her small boy into the country and after a week of anxiety has received this letter: "I got here all right and I forgot to write before; it is a very nice place to have fun. A feller and I went out in a boat and the boat tipped over and a man got me out and I was so full of water I didn't know nothin for a good long while. The other boy has got to be buried after they find him. His mother came from Chelsea and she cries all the time. A hoss kicked me over and I have got to have some money to pay a doctor for fixing my head. We are going to set an old barn on fire to-night, and I should smile if we don't have bully fun. I lost my watch and I am very sorry. I shall bring home some mud turtles and I shall bring home a tame woodchuck if I can get um in my trunk."

ALBURGH SPRINGS HOUSE,

Alburgh Springs, Vermont.

No person seeking health or pleasure can find a better place than at the Alburgh Springs, Vt., the waters of which are daily performing most remarkable cures; and where, with the beautiful scenery and rowing and fishing upon the lake, there is all the enjoyment that heart can wish. We should be glad to see our friends from Portland and vicinity here (the journey being easily made over the P. & O. R. R.), promising to do all in our power for their health and happiness. Summer Resort.

GRAND VIEW HOUSE,

Situated at West Auburn, Maine,

Six hours ride from Boston, via Boston & Maine and Eastern Railroads. The house is situated on high ground some 500 feet above the beautiful Lake Auburn and contains about 65 rooms. Broad Piazza on all sides, and the view of the surrounding country is unsurpassed in the State of Maine. Beautiful shade trees in front of house, fine Croquet grounds, Billiard Hall, Bowling Alley &c. Furniture and Carpets all new and of desirable patterns. House lighted by; gas, Electric Bells in every room, Post office and Church three minutes walk from the house. Two mails daily from Boston. The guests will be supplied with water fresh from the celebrated Mineral Spring every day. This water has no superior and is taking a high rank throughout the country on account of its medical properties. This house will be kept first class in every respect. The tables will be supplied with all the delicacies of the market, the best of cooks will be employed, no pains will be spared to make this house a pleasant home for all who may come. A large Stable with a fine Livery connected with the house. Gentlemen can bring their own teams and have the best of care taken of them. The house will be open for the reception of guests about the 15th of June. Thanking the public and my friends for their liberal patronage bestowed on me the past season while at the Lake Auburn House, I hope by strict attention to the wants of my guests to retain a share of the same at my new Hotel. Application for board and rooms can be made to the subscriber at West Auburn, Maine.

SAMOSET HOUSE,

Mouse Island, Maine.

Since the fine new hotel was built at Mouse Island, Boothbay Harbor, this always charming seaside resort has been growing in popularity. Last season the hotel was very generously patronized not only by Maine people but by Bostonians and New Yorkers. Mouse Island has several marked advantages over resorts further East. There is less fog in dog days, and the water are unusually smooth and safe for yachting. The fishing in the vicinity is unsurpassed. Arrangements have been made for reduced rates of fare to Mouse Island from the leading cities, including New York, Boston, Portland, Augusta, and Lewiston, and the aim will be to make the House first-class in all its appointments. REAL ESTATE.

Choice Residence Property For Sale.

A FINE building lot on Bowdoin Street between Vaughan Street and the Promenade: a lot on the Promenade between West Street and Pine Street, adjoining the elegant residences of Messrs. Barker and the Hon. J. E. Donnell. Also a lot on Vaughan Street between West Street and Bramhall Street.

The property on Bowdoin Street is very desirable for a residence, from the fact that it is directly opposite the Hon. John B. Brown's residence and grounds, and the rear of the lot has an uninterrupted view of Portland Harbor and Cape Elizabeth.

The outlook from the Promenade property is one of the grandest in New England, commanding a view from the White Mountains to Old Orchard Beach.

A rare opportunity is here offered to secure a choice residence location, among the finest residences in the city of Portland either as an investment or for a home, as the property will be sold at a very decided bargain and long time given if desired, with small payment at time of purchase.
